APRIL 2012

Minor Ministerial Musings

"Praise the Lord! Praise God in the sanctuary; praise God in the mighty firmament! Praise God for his mighty deeds; praise God according to God's surpassing greatness! Praise God with trumpet sound; praise God with lute and harp! Praise God with tambourine and dance; praise God with strings and pipe! Praise God with clanging cymbals; praise God with loud clashing cymbals! Let everything that breathes praise the Lord! Praise the Lord!" (Psalm 150).

If it is only appropriate to talk about prayers of confession and prayers for forgiveness as we walk together through Lent, it is certainly only appropriate to speak of prayers of praise as we get ever nearer to Easter, to the celebration of Christ's resurrection. The Westminster Shorter Catechism, one of the foundational confessions of the Presbyterian Church, begins with this question: "What is the chief end ['end' meaning 'purpose'] of man [humanity, women and men]?" The answer is this: "The chief end of man [men and women] is to glorify God, and to enjoy him forever."

We are created to praise our Lord and God. When we consider all of the wonders of creation, when we consider that we ourselves are created in God's image and likeness – when we consider all that God is and has done and does in our world and in our lives, praise is truly the first response that should come naturally to our lips. God is pretty amazing! And our lives are pretty amazing because of who God is, and because God loves us.

When you voice prayers of praise in worship or in your devotional and prayer life, what does that accomplish? And what is the motivation for prayers of praise – what do you hope to accomplish? Does God need to be reminded of all God has done? Does God need to be reminded of God's own omnipotence? Surely not. God is who God is apart from our prayers. In other words, God will be God no matter what we say in prayer. If we never prayed, never sang God's praise, God would still be Creator of all that was, and is, and is to come. We would still have been created in God's image and likeness. And we would still be dependent on God for all that we are and all that we have.

When you praise God in prayer, is this a way of complimenting God in order to get what we want out of prayer and out of God? In other words, if we are asking for something in prayer, are we more likely to get it if our prayers have included God's praise? Are we trying to get on God's "good side"?

Again, God is God no matter what – sometimes despite – our actions and words. The purpose of praising God is not to make it more likely that our prayers of intercession will be effective. Nor does God need our compliments or affirmations. If anything, it is the other way around. Praising God, in spoken word or in song, silently or shouted from the rooftops, reminds us of who God is and what God has done for us. We are reminded of our dependence upon God, of God's presence with us no matter what we go through, and of God's amazing grace and love for us. And then, when you consider the works of God's hands (of which each and every one of us is one), what else is there to do but praise the Lord? Let us pray. I'll see you in church on Sunday!

In Joyful Anticipation,
Pastor Lara

TWILIGHT PRAYER

Where there is no word, could there be a prayer?
Where there is no love, can we show we care?
If I think of you and I have something to share,
Just like God, for sure, you will always be there.
So in turn, I think of you as I bow in Prayer.

"Think beyond the self."

Regards,
C. Lou Pearson

him on a tree;
but God

Acts 10:39-40, NRSV

PADS UPDATE

Many of these men have no daily obligation.
Many have only despair.
They trudge each day to seek that night, for the haven of love that is there.
Soon the time will come and alone again they shall be.
But in our hearts, these men will always be.
Serve them, yes, the best we can.
For left behind will be not a single man.
Just one more month to show we care,
and then look forward to fall when again we will be there.

Regards,
C. Lou Pearson

PRAYER & CARE

“and hope does not disappoint us, because God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit which has been given to us.”

Romans 5:5 (RSV)

What would we do without hope? And, what would we do without the Holy Spirit? And, what would we do without God’s unconditional love? We would be lost. Let the Holy Spirit lead you to the library to praise and thank God Almighty for blessings you experience daily. Also, join us as we share concerns of our church family.

Love, ‘N’ Hugs
Arlene

WOMEN’S BIBLE STUDY

“The lot is cast into the lap, but the decision is wholly from the LORD.” PROVERBS 16:33 (RSV)

We may go through some difficult times too often. “God’s providence is that foresight and arrangement in advance of actual happenings, by which God accomplishes the ends He has purposed beforehand.” HARPER STUDY BIBLE

As we continue reading Proverbs, our lives become lighter, our laughter is louder and our learning is limitless. Come and join us as we search for more wisdom.

Love ‘N’ Hugs,
Arlene

Dianne Flynn, Director

Lent 2012- As I am writing this article we are preparing for our last night in the Jerusalem Marketplace. It has been a wonderful time of shared learning. Together we have stepped back to bible times and experienced some of the occupations found in the Bible. Thank you to all who participated in this program, lead the workshops, prepared meals, set up and decorated for our shops or helped when we needed extra hands for a project. It has been an amazing time and thank you.

The celebration of St Patrick's Day is always fun at Kids Club. Following our tradition of a time for crafts, shared gym time, lesson and fellowship we enjoyed making and tasting shamrock shakes.

Mark your calendars now for our Spring Family night which will be held on Friday, May 4th at 6:30 p.m. The evening offers a dinner and Christian entertainment. This will be a special treat for all ages. Everyone is welcome! Please sign up today for this wonderful family event.

VBS 2012 is on its way and will be at H.H.P.C. June 11th - 15th, 6:30 - 8:30 PM. Our theme this year is "Amazing Wonders Aviation- Encountering God's Awesome Power." Tricia and Co. will again be the featured presenters for this week long summer time adventure. Mark your calendars with this date and watch for further information.

We look forward to the many opportunities we will share during the month of April here in Kids Club. This month our lesson time will center around;

The Promised Power of the Cosmos - The Holy Spirit helps to give up power and courage.

Holy Spirit as Guide - The Holy Spirit is the promised Guide who helps direct our lives.

Alien Agents on Earth - Angels are God's messengers and a promised form of protection for believers.

The Promised Re-entry - Before He left earth, Jesus promised to return.

Destruction of the Enemy's Empire (Part 1) - Jesus has promised to defeat Satan.

Peace and Joy,
Dianne

KIDS ARE NUMBER 1 AT THE KIDS CLUB

Christian Education Meeting

The Jerusalem Marketplace will officially end on March 28. Children who attended this program for the full six weeks will tell you all they learned and show you some of the creative projects they created during the time they were here. Most memorable will be the dedicated people who helped them visit the marketplace. Thank you to all the substitutes who filled in during this time. Thanks to Donna and Patt in the Bakery and Confectionary, Megan in Seeds and Scents, Debbie in Jewels and Gems, Linda and Beth in Weaving, Bev, Rich, Jarret in JC Woodshop, and Gina, Cheryl, and Dave in the Storyteller. This Lenten program would not have been as much fun without your help and dedication. Thank you to all those cooks who spent time creating soups for everyone to enjoy at the two worship services. Thank you to the team of workers who made sure the tables were ready for dining every week. We hope this was something you enjoyed and learned something more about the times when Jesus walked through the marketplace.

Dr. Kirk MacGregor has been busy taking field trips with his group, "Developing a Christian Worldview". They have visited a Hindu Temple, a Buddhist Temple, and a Jewish Synagogue. Adults who are interested in learning more about Christianity and the beliefs shared with other dominant world religions are asked to join them on Tuesday evenings at 8:30 PM.

The Young Adult Bible Study group has been studying the book of Mark. They enjoy a great discussion as well as build a strong relationship with the members of this group. Anyone who is ages 19- 39 is welcome to join the discussion and make new friends.

The Women's Bible Study group is working on the book of Proverbs. They use many outside reading materials to help them in discussing each verse. They welcome new members to their group and hope you stop by to visit on Monday afternoon.

The Prayer Shawl group meets at the church after the 10:30 AM worship service. They have completed almost 60 of their desired 70 lap blankets. A decision to postpone the delivery of the lap blankets was made so there would be ample time to bless the blankets, arrange for a visit, and have people available for the delivery. Dianne has graciously volunteered herself to sew in the HHPC Prayer Shawl labels. That way anyone who receives this gift as well as their family will know and remember our gift to them.

The Senior High Sunday class had a spectacular dinner on March 23. Not only was the food excellent, but the entertainment was superb. Thank you for the "International Delight" who made mouth-watering food and also delighted us with beautiful voices and memorable music. Thank you to Lou and the entire Senior High Group. It was a wonderful evening to spend with family and friends.

One family attended the Camp meeting held to inform everyone about the steps needed to register for summer Camp at Saugatuck. Please contact Dianne at the church if you are interested in sending your children to camp this summer.

Children for completed grades 4-6 have an Outdoor Adventure. The dates are July 29-August 4. The cost is $380.

Children for completed grades 1-4 have Mini-Camp. The dates are July 8-11 or July 11-14. The cost is $250.

Discovery. The dates are July 29-August 4. The cost is $375.

As in years past, the Church is making every effort to scholarship families who cannot afford to attend camp. You must contact Dianne Flynn or Sue Orsic if you are in need of scholarship money since this is approved through the Session.

The One Great Hour of Sharing is underway. Did you get your calendar and fish bank? Are you using the calendar for giving and being reminded of the many ways we are blessed? Donna will be in church on Palm Sunday, April 1, to collect the filled fish banks. We hope she will need several children to help her carry the big net out of the sanctuary. Remember to fill those fish banks and bring them in very heavy with coins so we can see the children help her out.

Mark your calendars for another special Family Night. May 4 is our Family Night with a catered dinner. Our special guest is a storyteller, balloonist and magician. If you have come to previous family nights you may recognize him. The stories, magic and creations will amaze you. Come and bring the family as well as any guests who you think would enjoy this night out. We are sure this is an evening you will remember and want to share with everyone. See you on May 4.

Did you remember to mark your calendars for Vacation Bible School? It begins June 11-15 at 6:30 PM to 8:30 PM. Plans are in the making for a spectacular week. Children ages 4- grade 6 are invited each evening to play and learn with Tricia and Company and the volunteers who come to work this week. Our Vacation Bible School is titled, "Amazing Wonders Aviation." If you are High School age and interested in working for the week, please contact Dianne so she can assign you to one of the many support positions available. We know this is one of the programs which you will want to attend.

The entire Christian Education Committee wishes you and your family a very Happy Easter. Rejoice and be glad. We hope you can join us for Easter services.

Senior High Sunday School Class

ENCOURAGEMENT : To inspire with hope and courage, resolution to do your very best to see the best in others and encourage them.

1Thessalonians 5:11 Therefore encourage one another and build up each other just as in fact you are doing.

Thank you, Father, for the people who change my world for the better and encourage me in word and deed. Let me in turn build up people rather than tear them down. May my actions and words always be uplifting and encouraging to those who surround my life.

Regards,
C. Lou Pearson
